

COMPLIANCE COACH®

Our Name Speaks For Itself.

Top 5 Reasons Why You Need to Use Compliance Coach for Compliance Training

1 Compliance Coach provides the most effective compliance training in the industry.

Courses are also highly engaging and teach not only the what, but how to. Your employees learn all critical knowledge so they can apply the learning immediately on the job and prevent compliance errors.

2 Compliance Coach provides the most comprehensive compliance courseware in the industry.

Over 250 courses, covering all rules, lines of business, risk issues and employees from the mailroom to the board room. The courses are also updated and refreshed timely so that your employees are always current.

3 Compliance Coach is always first in the nation to publish compliance training within days of a new law or regulation.

Get the most current information before anyone else and clarity on the compliance requirements so you save time and money.

4 Compliance Coach is the only company to have developed a curriculum assignment best practices guide.

It helps you assign the right courses, to the right people at the right time. You will get to deploy the optimal training plan for each employee and your organization.

5 Compliance Coach provides the only learning management system with risk-based tracking and reporting.

Get cutting edge risk-based analytics so you can transform the training from a cost of doing business into a highly effective risk mitigation tool and pass your next regulatory examination with flying colors.
